

Biennale internationale design

Saint-Étienne 10 ANS 15 → 30 NOV.2008

Éric Jourdan.

Designer.

Know-how relating to issues of various kinds.

Experience of projects dealing with community life and public space.

Essential attention paid to individuals, expressed through projects which affect private space.

A knowledge of the world of manufacturing helping to take the constraints of industrial processes on board.

1991: development and design of the furniture for Cartier USA in New York

1993: participation in Tim Thom (Thomson multimedia) with Philippe Starck.

1995: VIA Carte Blanche.

Since 2002: Collections of furniture for the Roset Group (Ligne Roset and Cinna).

2003: Signing for the Cité Universitaire Internationale (International Student Halls of Residence) in partnership with Ruedi Baur.

2007: Designing of the furniture for a private golf course (United States) for Domeau et Pérès.

Urban structure for the city of Saint Étienne